Have to Come Again.

(From Wednesday's Advertiser.) That the belt road had nothing on Numan avenue was the gist of some re- Samuel Kane, et al to Mary E Fosmarks made last evening at board of supervisors, when the question of taking Kichikoro Kojiyama to Oahu Rallmoney from outside districts came up Eben Low stating that 3360 feet of Nunant had already cost $18,855.32 Thos McLean and wf to Protestant with none of it completed, and part fast when a money resolution vetoed by Mayor Fern came up for reconsideration on motion of McClellan, and James D McInerny to Mary P Noit was during this time of airy persiffage that Low made public the astounding figures of Nauana work.

It will be remembered that Chairman Dwight of the road committee several weeks ago introduced a resolu-tion calling for a certain portion of money of the outside districts to help out the work on Nunanu, the approprintion for which had been overdrawn. This measure was objected to by Arsold and Low but carried by a vote of five to two, afterwards being vetoed by Mayor Fern, who believed that all the country districts needed their money for their own work.

Who Would Change?

Much speculation has been indulged in since the veto as to who would up-hold the Mayor besides Arnold and Low, it being thought that McClellan would stand with Hizzoner, and perhaps Dwight would shift his position.
Last night McClellan came out flat us against Mayor Fern, the only other Democrat in the executive branch of the city government, and Dwight did change, thus upholding the veto and saving the country road department. Dwight that distinguished himself by being the one to lead in strangling his ewn legislative offspring.

After McClellan moved to reconsider,

Arnold made a motion, seconded by Low, to "sustain the veto of Mayor Fern," and then the fireworks began to shoot. It has been many a week since such an exhibition of forensic eloquence has been heard in the sacred precincts, but it was all there last evening, Murray, McClellan, Low and Dwight taking turns in shooting off a few verbal pinwheels and rockets.

Murray First Up.

Murray started things going by quoting figures to show that the out-side districts had had considerably more money spent on their roads than they had raised by taxes, in some cases several times as much. Honolulu had always got the worst of it, according to Murray, and it was time to make a change. They did not want to take mency from the country right along but just for a couple of months.

Low came back as soon as Murray had subsided somewhat and told of the extravagant work being done in Nuuanu, already costing considerably more than the much talked-of Heein road, and not a mile by a lot.

"The outside districts are entitled to every dollar that they are now getting," said Low, "and they have been cut down already;" and he went on to tell of necessary work which must be done at Wahiawa in the near fu-

be came back with a statement that the road committee had nover reported any work pecsaary in that committee had never report-ork necessary in that section, Fanny Strauch and hsb to Antone also that the figures quoted by Low for Nuuman included moving fences, building several storm sewers and other matters not pertaining directly to the road itself. Nunanu was in such bad shape now that people were likely to and maintained that there are no storm sewers included in his figures and proved it by Deputy Auditor Lloyd who was present. Following this he quoted City Engineer Gere as stating the Nauanu work should cost $4.00 a running foot, and he said it had already cost $5.61 a running foot and acting was completed. Murray was quiet after that.

money which had been spent in the country from time to time which had en taken from Honolulu, and called attention to the fact that the loan fund commission was to spend $200,000 in the outside districts. He believed this money should be brought in for Hono-lulu work, and would have to take a stand against the Mayor, the first time

After this the scrap became general, Low, Murray and McClellan all getting mixed up at once, until someone called "question" and it looked as if a vote was to be taken, until Sam Dwight got up to speechify a little.

He started in by saying that he had agreed to take money from the outside districts at first, and those who heard his prefacing remarks realized that Dwight had shifted to back up Arnold and Low is sustaining the veto.

Dwight weet on to explain that he knew Nauanu work was important, but he had been against taking mensy from sutside, always. ## Kilauea Leaves at Noon.

The new Inter-Island steamer Kilauea, chartered to the Matson company, left San Francisco yesterday about noon and will make the trip to Hono fulu in about seven days. The boat will bring between nine and ten hundred tons of cargo, and after it is dis-charged she will be turned over to her owners, the Inter-Island company, and will shortly replace the old Ma-una Los on the Kona and Kau run. The Mauna Los is to be overhauled

Captain Freeman is in command of the Kilanea, and President Kennedy, it is believed, is a passenger.

The Kilanea is an up-to-date boat in every respect. The cabins, dining ball, smoking room, social hall are all splendidly finished and the hardwood and uphoistery well selected for harmonions color results. There are five docks, the chude, bridge, saloon, main and lower deck.
